

ARI H. JAFFE

Of Counsel

AHJ@kjk.com

216.736.7209

Over his 25-plus years with KJK, Ari's legal work has spanned a broad range of litigation, arbitration and corporate matters for individuals, investment firms, banks, manufacturers, real estate developers, title companies and businesses ranging in size from start-ups to publicly-traded Fortune 100 companies. His substantive expertise is likewise diverse and includes securities, insurance, real estate, employment, ethics, professional liability and healthcare law.

Prior to joining KJK, Ari served as in-house counsel for a major health insurance company and then was associated with a small law firm, all along creating client relationships that have spanned decades. He has earned a reputation among his clients for being able to tackle even the most complex cases requiring multifaceted negotiations, trials and appeals.

Ari has served as Special Counsel to the State of Ohio and chairs the University Heights Board of Zoning Appeals.

Volunteerism has been an integral part of Ari's life since high school with much of his work benefiting the Jewish community. He has held leadership positions with American Friends of Ogen, Brandeis University Hillel, Jewish Federation of Cleveland, Mandel Jewish Community Center, Fuchs Mizrachi School, Green Road Synagogue and the Cleveland Jewish News.
