

KEVIN J. LENHARD

With more than 25 years in professional services, including practicing law, Kevin has extensive experience representing individuals, families and businesses in estate and tax planning, as well as business advisory matters and litigation. Additionally, he has provided consultation to U.S. multinational clients in both federal and international tax matters. Prior to joining KJK, Kevin worked at the Cleveland Foundation, where he developed partnerships and assisted professional advisors and their clients in developing strategic philanthropic plans with the foundation

Kevin holds a bachelor of business administration degree in finance from The University of Notre Dame and a law degree from The Cleveland State University Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. Additionally, he holds an LL.M. in taxation from Case Western Reserve University School of Law. Kevin is a member of the Cleveland Metropolitan and Ohio State Bar Associations, as well as the American Bar Association. He is also a member of the Estate Planning Council of Cleveland and Northern Ohio Charitable Gift Planners.

Kevin has been a board member of West Side Catholic Center since 2017, and currently serves as board vice president. He previously served as board president of Seeds of Literacy and on the St. Ignatius High School Alumni Council.

Outside of his law practice, Kevin enjoys spending summer evenings at Clifton Beach in Lakewood with his wife and three children. He also enjoys reading a good book, getting around the golf course, skiing in the winter and exercising on a (fairly) regular basis.

“When I sit down with my clients to collaborate on their estate planning goals, I try to be an active and conscientious listener. “Wisdom is the reward you get for listening when you would have rather talked.” – Mark Twain.
