(216)736.7231

Kyle creatively and efficiently advises businesses in achieving their goals while providing valuable insights that assist clients in conquering their various challenges and obstacles. He is an integral part of the Firm's practice groups through his research, writing and problem solving.

Born and raised in Warren, Ohio, Kyle came to Cleveland in pursuit of his law degree. Kyle holds a Bachelor of Science degree in finance from Pennsylvania State University and a Juris Doctorate from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. He honed his skills as a submissions editor for Cleveland State Law Review, which recognized him as Editor of the Year. He served as both secretary and vice president of the Entertainment and Sports Law Association during his time at Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. Kyle returned to the program to coach the Entertainment & Sports Law Association team in the 2023 Tulane International Baseball Arbitration Competition where he led them to a Top 16 finish.

Prior to KJK, Kyle clerked at a mid-sized law firm in Cleveland and externed with the Honorable Magistrate Judge David A. Ruiz, United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio.

When he's not practicing law, Kyle enjoys playing golf and spending time outside with his dogs. He is also a passionate fan of all Cleveland sports teams, as well as soccer and esports.
