

NATHAN L. WIEDEMANN

Nathan represents financial institutions, funds, public traded and privately held companies, non-profit and government organizations, and individuals in connection with finance, real estate, and general business transactions.

Nathan has significant experience structuring, documenting, and negotiating various types of loan transactions, including single and syndicated multi-lender, senior secured, senior unsecured, asset based, second lien and subordinated credit facilities. He has documented domestic and international transactions, transactions involving debt and equity issuance, asset and real estate purchases and sales, mergers and acquisitions, ISDAs, ESOPs, and transactions for companies in federally regulated industries such as healthcare, communications (radio stations), and aviation. In addition to finance transactions, Nathan acts as general counsel to a family of companies in the logistics industry and helps various businesses in matters of contract preparation and negotiation, corporate governance, and general business counseling.
